Subject: Chi-X Releases Product Access Contract Framework

Chi-X has released its contract framework for access to its market and products. The material is available on the Client Forum (Secure Link) and covers matters such as technical connectivity, access to trading infrastructure and market information products including CHIXMD. The contract framework comprises the following documents:

- Order Form,
- General Terms & Conditions,
- Product Manual, and
- Payment Schedule.

We have received each client firm's requested product configuration for the production environment during Co-ordinated Participant Testing. We will use this information to prepare an Order Form for each client firm to review. Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any queries.

If you have any queries concerning our launch or test program, please do not hesitate to contact one of the team.

Kind regards,

Chi-X Australia
